12B MESSAGE

ONLY a few months remain of our high school days and of the good times in which we all participate. In later years we will look back and recall with enjoyment the days we spent in Port Huron High School.

The time is approaching when we will have the responsibility of leadership placed upon our shoulders. In order to make our class more successful than all others, it will be necessary for each and everyone to cooperate.

Realizing that little has been accomplished this year, let us set our standards higher, so we can make the 1932 February graduating class excel all previous classes.

10B MESSAGE

AS we take another step forward to success, let us try to make our class a memorable one. We have only one more semester left in which to correct our mistakes before entering the greatest grade of the institution. Let us, the students of the 10B class, try to carry on the task to the best of our ability.

As we see our superior classes cooperating, let us endeavor to carry on their work better and, throughout our High School career, help to make this a bigger and better high school.

FOOTBALL

UNDER the capable tutelage of Coach "Brick" Fowler, Captain "Hank" Ceasor piloted his team of Red-White gridiron players through one of the most successful seasons in recent years. Three men, Captain "Hank" Ceasor, Gus Hill, and Fred Kaiser, were awarded places on mythical teams picked by sport editors of various papers in the state.

About 75 men reported for practice, and Fowler had some good material with which to work. He had six veterans and quite a number of Junior High League players, who had starred the year before.

At a banquet held Friday, December 5, in honor of Leo Draveling, U. of M. star and alumnus of the Port Huron High School, the lettermen received their awards and John Lloyd was elected captain of the 1931 football squad.

Port Huron 14—Algonac 0

In the first game of the season, the Red-Whites were out to avenge the defeat of the year before. The flashing play of the game was the 33 yard pass from Hill to Ceasor for the first touchdown. The next touchdown was made by constantly running the ball through the line.

Port Huron 2—Birmingham 0

Keeping the slate clean, the Red-Whites downed the strong Birmingham team. In the first quarter of the game the locals got the only two points of the game when the Birmingham kicker was over the goal line attempting to kick the ball back into Port Huron territory. In walking back, he stepped out of the end zone and the officials ruled that it was a safety.

THE STUDENT

Port Huron 6—Pontiac 12

The Red-Whites were out-weighted in this contest, but they fought gamely and nearly held the strong Chiefs to a tie. In the last few minutes Eddie Salters ran nearly the length of the field before being downed on the 15 yard line. A few minutes later he carried the ball over the goal line, thus winning the game for Pontiac.

pp. 50

Port Huron 3—Ferndale 0

"Hank" Ceasor, Red-White captain, had been using his toe to good advantage throughout the first of the season. The Fowlermen were unable to get inside Ferndale's 10 yard line, so Ceasor kicked a field goal from the 15 yard line for the only score of the game.

Port Huron 35—Mt. Clemens 0

The big classic of the season—Port Huron-Mt. Clemens game. Port Huron went, saw, and conquered that memorable day. Every man in the backfield, including "Hank" Ceasor, made a touchdown that day. The Red-Whites out-played and out-scored the Bathers in the game that decided where "The Little Brown Keg" would go for a year.

Port Huron 7—Royal Oak 7

This was the last league game of the season for the Red-Whites. They fought hard all through this game and outplayed the Royal Oak team; but the Oakites hung on, and near the last of the game Kreger made a touchdown that tied the score.

Port Huron 0—Toledo Libbey 20

This game was played in the new stadium at Libby High in Ohio. The closest the Red-Whites came to scoring was when Ceasor's pass was completed and Port Huron had the ball on the one yard line when the gun sounded.

Port Huron 14—U. of D. High 0

Fowler's gridiron men made a snappy comeback when they met and defeated U. of D. High. Kaiser was playing end for the team when he snagged a pass from Ceasor for the first touchdown. Hill displayed brilliant work when he ran back a punt for the second touchdown.

Port Huron 13—Bay City 20

The team traveled to Bay City where they met defeat, but fought hard all through the game.

Port Huron 31—Richmond 6

The annual Turkey Day struggle was a well-fought battle, the Red-Whites coming out on top for the last game of the season.

BASKETBALL

COACH C. V. FOWLER produced another successful basketball five for P. H. H. S. and won a Regional Tournament.

Basketball Team Personnel

The offense was again built around the captain, Gus Hill, who was generally given the best opponent to guard. He was named on the first team at Flint.

Henry Ceasor finished his career as a high school athlete in a basketball uniform. "Hank" continued to show his usual fight, and his graduation in January was a great loss to the team.

Alvin Dimon was always in there fighting, and his ability to shoot helped the team to win many of its games. He, too, was named on the first five at the Flint Tournament.

Jack Farr had a very good season and gave every team a scare with his quickness and smartness.

George Stevens, who played center or guard, kept the opponent from running up larger scores. He did a fine job at taking the ball off the backboard.

Other members of the squad who showed up well were Phare, Wismer, Smith, Givens, and Emerick.

Review

The Red-Whites started the season with a defeat by Libby of Toledo. The Fowlmen then came into their own and won eight games, defeating Wyandotte, St. Stephen, St. Augustine, Grosse Pointe, Ferndale, Bay City, Ann Arbor, and Mt. Clemens.

The boys were out for revenge and got it when they defeated Mt. Clemens. The Huronites were only pressed hard in the first half and then ran wild in the second.

Fordson turned out to be a jinx and defeated the locals on the Fordson floor.

Flint Northern fell the following night and St. Mary's and Birmingham in the next two weeks.

In the next game Pontiac gained a 32 to 26 win, and with this game went the Southeastern League Championship.

The team sent Royal Oak home on the little end of a big score.

Port Huron went to the Regional Tournament at Flint and defeated Owosso and Flint Northern. They met Saginaw Eastern, who had defeated Arthur Hill Central in the finals, and defeated them. By defeating Flint Northern they gained the right to compete in the State Tournament.

The Red-Whites drew Fordson for the first round of the State. The dope pointed to a Huronite victory over Fordson at Pontiac, but the Red-Whites stopped at the end of the first half and were defeated.

Scores of the Red and White games throughout the season were as follows:

Port Huron, 16; Libby - - -	17	Port Huron, 18; Ann Arbor - -	16
Port Huron, 32; Wyandotte -	9	Port Huron, 30; Mt. Clemens -	9

CHEER LEADERS

THE success of the football and basketball teams cannot be attributed to the players alone. Some of the credit belongs to the cheer leaders.

There were three veterans and four recruits at the beginning of the season. The veterans were Norden Henderson, Frank Burke, and Alex. MacKenzie. The recruits were Norman Barnes, Harry English, Ross Keener, and Neil Davis.

Letter winners this year were Norden Henderson, Norman Barnes, and Alex. MacKenzie.

pp. 53

BASEBALL

AS the opening of the 1931 baseball season approaches, Port Huron High School is confident that Ralph "Sod" French will produce another winning team. The five veterans ought to help "Sod" to build a pennant winner.

The lettermen who will appear on the 1931 roster will be Stevens, first base; Lloyd, third base; Smith, catcher; Dimon, outfielder; and Hill, short stop. Some good baseball can be expected from these men.

Among the other men who will go to make up the squad will be such high calibre material as Goetz, Luther, Farr, Nurnburg, Moran, Emerick, Ling, and Bennett.

With a schedule composed of fourteen games, the hardest that the team has had in years, the boys will have an interesting season. The teams that appear on the 1931 schedule are Algonac, Grosse Pointe, Pontiac, St. Stephen's, Marine City, Royal Oak, Croswell, Richmond, Flint, and Adrian.

The schedule for the 1931 season is as follows:

April 24—Algonac	-	-	-	-	-	There

WINNING five games and losing none, the 12A's captured the first semester championship in intra-mural basketball. The men who led their class to victory are Edward Gaines, Clair Maxon, Clifford Jex, Keith Kresin, and Walter Campbell. The 12A's were runners-up with an 800% average. The 10A's and 11B's were tied with a 400% average, and the 10B's came last with one game won and four lost.

INTRA-MURAL BASEBALL

INTRA-MURAL baseball started Tuesday, April 28. The captains for the classes were as follows: 10B's, Stewart Kuehlke; 10A's, Ellwyn Millett; 11B's, Cecil Shell; 11A's, Alex. MacKenzie; 12B's, Linden Martin, and 12A's, George Eisenhauer. The Port Huron Lettermen umpired all games, which were played in back of the Vocational School.

pp. 55

TRACK

COACH CECIL V. FOWLER took over the reins of the track team when Mr. Van Orden dropped them.

Sixty athletes answered "Brick's" call. There were only two veterans back from the 1930 campaign, Battle and Henderson, so Coach Fowler was faced with a green, but eager and spirited, squad.

The Junior class had the most representatives on the team while the Seniors were next in line.

The men who looked most promising were Henderson, Ling, Marcus, Durant, and MacInnes in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes; 440 yard dash, Thornton, Klienstiver, and Carlisle; half-mile, Ducky Robinson, Nagle, Wolfel, Turbin, Adinoff, and Springer; mile run, King, Bassett, Mericka, Sinclair, and Carey; shot put, Battle, Nagle, Ling, and MacCabe; high jump, Givens, Reid, Anderson, and Walker; discus throw, Anderson, Klienstiver, Ling, and Thornton; broad jump, Oag, Givens, Battle, Nagle, Ling, Stone, and Hazlette; relay team, Carlisle, MacInnes, Marcus, and Henderson.

The schedule which the cinder path lads faced was as follows:

- May 1—Grosse Pointe, Birmingham, and Port Huron—Grosse Pointe.
 - May 12—Mt. Clemens, Port Huron, and Pontiac—Mt. Clemens.
 - May 16—State Regional—(probably at Flint).
 - May 22-23—State Tournament—Lansing.

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE Student Council of Port Huron High School was inaugurated February 27, 1929.

The purpose of the organization is to act as a medium between the faculty and the student body. Since the members are from the student body, the Council is able to learn the desires of the students and act accordingly.

pp. 57

Due to the two graduating classes every year from now on, a new plan of student government was inaugurated. Each A and B class elected three members to the Council, thus increasing that body from fifteen to eighteen members.

The following councilors were elected to office:

Social Commissioner	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Clara Weston

The Council for the first semester held many pep meetings for the football and basketball games.

During the second and third weeks of the second semester, all classes elected new officers. This was done at class meetings, by nominations from the floor. The following people were chosen:

George Drought and Maurice Robinson have handled the business department in a very commendable manner.

The guidance and support of Miss MacLaren, advisor, have been invaluable to the members of the staff.

The staff members attended the Southeastern Michigan Journalists' Association at Flint, March 7, and attended round table discussions and meetings of interest to the young journalists.

The two editors wish to take this opportunity to thank the members of the staff for their cooperation during the past year.

LATIN CLUB

THE Latin Club, which has for many years been an outstanding club in high school, was reorganized at the beginning of last term. The presiding officer, instead of being a president, was a Pontifex Maximus. The whole club was divided into six factions with a senator at the head of each faction.

At the first meeting of the reorganized club the following officers were elected: Pontifex Maximus, Alfred Maxwell; Scribe Primus, Enid Paige; Censor, Anna Lewis; Vestalis Virgines, Florence Beemer and Irene Wurzel; Senators, Josephine Cowles, Virginia Kirkwood, Alfred Maxwell, Margaret Wolfel, Ella McIntyre, Jean Woodward, and Margaret Phail.

Each faction had charge of the entertainment for a meeting. Reports were given on famous Romans and Roman customs. The first faction enacted a parody on Mark Anthony's Funeral Sermon for Ceasar. "Pyramus and Thisbe" was presented in the style of the Shakespearian stage by another group of members. American games were Latinized and enjoyed by the members of the club.

The success of the club was due to the conscientious labors of Alfred Maxwell, Pontifex Maximus, and Miss Eunice Eichhorn, instructor.

pp. 61

THE SPANISH CLUB

THE Spanish Club has been very active this semester and has had a large attendance at the meetings held every other Friday.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected: Pauline Limberg, President; Charles Hall, Vice-President, and Cornelia McGraw, Secretary. Mr. Guerra was faculty advisor.

At the last meeting the club had the pleasure of hearing Miss Hudson, a missionary from South America. She gave a very interesting talk on Argentina and other South American countries.

The play "Esos Yanques," given January 29, was a success and was repeated March 20 for the benefit of the Baby Clinic.

GIRLS' COUNCIL

UNDER the able leadership of Miss Franklin, the Girls' Council was organized at the beginning of last semester. The purpose of the council was to create a more friendly feeling among the girls. The members of the council met once a week with Miss Franklin.

The main event of the year was the Kids' Party, which was held March 27 in the school auditorium, in honor of the new sophomores.

Sixteen girls were elected to the council from the various classes, as follows—Seniors: Esther Dobratz, Margaret Phail, Helen Barton, Ersell Scouten; Juniors: Frances Davidson, Clara Weston, Pauline Limberg, Philo Scott; 10A's: Shirley Pugh, Eleanor Taylor, Virginia Belyea, Mary Jones; 10B's: Margaret Moore, Jean West, Beatrice Crooker, Marion Farr.

The club was divided into committees, and each committee had charge of the entertainment for one meeting. The meetings were opened with the singing of "La Marseillaise."

Several interesting reports were given on France and its people. Ernest Cassin gave the members an interesting account of his experiences while traveling in France. He illustrated his talk with pictures he had obtained in France. Betty Lou Davis was chairman for the last meeting which was social.

The members of the club wish to express their utmost appreciation to Miss Everham and Miss Case for their splendid support during the past year.

RIFLE CLUB

pp. 62

THE meetings of the club have been well attended, the complete enrollment being 65 members. Most of the time has been devoted to the proper care and handling of the rifle.

In the practice meetings, which were held at the Armory on Tuesday evenings, the girls seemed to be doing the best work. Shooting a .22 calibre rifle, Grace Karpp made a perfect score. Several other girls were also "crack shots" and gave the boys a race to make the first team.

The club was divided into two platoons. A team from each platoon shot at the National Guards' range at Comstock Hill. The members of the winning team were the guests of the losing team at a supper.

The officers of the club were Philip Carveth, President; Grace Karpp, Vice-President; Helen Young, Secretary; Harold James, Platoon Sergeant; and George Eisenhower, Platoon Sergeant.

FORUM CLUB

DURING the first semester the Forum Club was divided into two groups. John Wismer was chairman of one group, and Mary Slutsky presided over the other group.

In the Extemporaneous contest which was held in the course of this semester, Morton Adinoff was awarded the medal.

When the club was reorganized at the beginning of the second semester, the following officers were elected: President, Frank Haynes; Vice-President, Arthus Devine; Secretary, Freida Roehl.

The Declamatory contest and the Oratorical contest were outstanding events of the semester. Ernest Cowles, a student of the Garfield, won the first contest. Gregg Lewis received first place in the Oratorical contest.

GERMAN CLUB

THE German Club has been holding its regular weekly meetings. The object of this club is to accustom its members to the German language.

Entertainment has consisted of parliamentary drills, parties, and interesting speeches.

Another experiment of the club was the edition of a German newspaper, "Der Schulbeobachter." Wilma Schomacher was editor-in-chief, with Miss Rothman as faculty advisor.

Officers of the club were as follows: Edgar Nelson, President; William Reid, Vice-President; and Michael Dinger, Secretary.

EMBROIDERY AND GIFT CLUB

THE Embroidery and Gift Club held its first meeting in September, 1930. The club met once a week and had as its instructor Miss M. J. Ross.

During the first term some of the work of the different members was put on display. Short talks were given on how the needle is made.

Officers elected for the second term were as follows: President, Emma B. Innis; Vice-President, Thelma Draper; Treasurer, Violet Taylor; Secretary, Beatrice L. Willis.

During this semester several of the members corresponded with foreign girls who are interested in embroidery work. The club also subscribed to the "Needlecraft Magazine."

Reports on "Foreign Embroidery," "Ancient Embroidery," and "Needles" were given by Thelma Draper, Latrietha Knox, and Anna Lewis, respectively.

MINIATURE AUTHORS' CLUB

THE Miniature Authors' Club is a new club which was recently organized by Miss Ballentine. The club met for the first time in the Publication Office, February 27, 1931. At this meeting there was an enrollment of nineteen members, but more have joined since.

The officers of the club were as follows: President, Mary Paige; Vice-President, Dorothy Gross; Secretary-Treasurer, Karl Gooderhan.

The object of this club is to stimulate in its members the desire to put their thoughts into words and to give its members an opportunity to write on any subject they desire in either poetry or prose.

BAND

IN spite of the fact that it was allowed but two rehearsals a week, instead of five as in previous years, the band had a very successful season. The average membership was about thirty.

To start the season the band headed the parade two successive nights for the Merchants' Exhibit at the W. B. A.

On Friday, October 31, the band traveled to Detroit by special bus, where a short concert was presented to an assembly of the Teachers' Convention at the Statler Hotel.

The band was again called on to participate in the Spring Opening.

When the team traveled to Pontiac to fight against Fordson in the semi-finals, the band went along to support them. Funds to help to charter a bus were raised by voluntary contributions of the student body and by a tea dance.

An engagement to play for the Kiwanis Club at their noon meeting at Hotel Harrington in the near future is being arranged.

SENIOR PLAY

DIFFERENT from other years, the Senior play, "Nothing But the Truth," was given two nights, December 15 and 16, in the Garfield School.

"Nothing But the Truth" is built upon the idea of the hero, Bob Bennett, speaking nothing but the pure unadulterated truth for twenty-four hours. He bets a friend ten thousand dollars that he can do it and boldly tackles the truth to win the money. For a very short time the task is easy, but Truth routes Old Man Trouble and then things begin to happen. Trouble doesn't seem very large or aggressive when he first pokes his nose into the noble resolution of our hero, but soon we see our dealer in truth disrupting the domestic relations of his partner.

The cast was as follows:

Bob Bennett, Kenneth Locke; E. M. Ralston, Norman Grass; Dick Donnelly, Clair Maxon; Van Dusen, William Welsh; Bishop Doran, Francis Merritt; Gwendolyn Ralston, Irma Herpel and Mildred Snover; Ethel Clark, Helen Treffry and Mary Donaldson; Mrs. Ralston, Joan Maxwell; Marthy, Adeline Diller; Sable, Ersell Scouten; Mabel, Jane Rauser.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

J-HOP

THE J-Hop held in the Armory, Wednesday, January 21, was considered one of the most beautiful affairs of the winter months.

The ballroom was beautifully decorated in blue and silver, the class colors. Streamers were arranged to form a false ceiling, which was completed with a plaque upon which was the date 1931. The stage upon which the orchestra played was also decorated in blue and silver. Flood lights of blue and orchid added to the beauty of the room.

BASKETBALL BANQUET

THE annual basketball banquet was held on Monday, March 30, in Wesley Hall.

Mr. Louis Weil, editor of The Times Herald, was toastmaster. Other speakers for the evening were Mr. Benjamin Van Alstyne, head coach of the basketballers at Michigan State College, Mr. Melvin J. Myers, who awarded the P. H. monograms, and Mr. A. Ross MacLaren, principal of the high school.

Members of the Junior Highs and the Vocational School were also guests at the banquet.

The Student Council sponsored the banquet.

10A PARTY

ON Thursday evening, April 2, the 10A class gave a party in the Washington Junior High Gymnasium.

The gym was beautifully decorated in Easter colors. The false ceiling was a basket weave of green, yellow, and white.

The Blue Water Syncopators played from an orchestra pit surrounded by a small white lattice fence.

Chaperones for the party were Miss Millicent Neil, Miss Merodine Case, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ross MacLaren, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cochrane.

HONOR SOCIETY INITIATION

THE sixteen June graduates elected to the National Honor Society were initiated into the local chapter of that society on May 12.

THE STUDENT

The formal ritual was performed by Mr. MacLaren and the January honor students, Margaret Phail, Helen Treffry, Margretta Trese, Neil Davis, Edward Gaines, and Fred Kaiser.

On the same evening the old members of the local chapter and the faculty of the high school held a banquet in the high school cafeteria in honor of the new members.

The cafeteria was beautifully decorated in spring colors. Speeches were given by Mr. Packard, members of the faculty, and both the new and the old honor students.

pp. 69

Those initiated into the society at this time were Josephine Cowles, Esther Dobratz, Lauretta Brown, Virginia Kirkwood, Adeline Diller, Ernest Cassin, Thelma Schreiber, Morton Adinoff, Raymond McCreight, Ellsworth Fish, Ruth Sullivan, Jack Burde, Eunice Foster, Irene Wurzel, Mary Fish, and Meryle Riggs.

PRESS BANQUET

THE Press Banquet was held in the high school cafeteria the last week in May. The members of both the Lighthouse and Student staffs were present.

Margaret Phail, Editor-in-chief of the "Student," was toastmistress. Speeches were given by the members of both the staffs.

Miss MacLaren, faculty advisor of the two publications, announced the new Editors-in-chief.

The "Students" were given out, and time was spent in autographing them.

ANNUAL MOTHERS' AND DAUGHTERS' RECEPTION

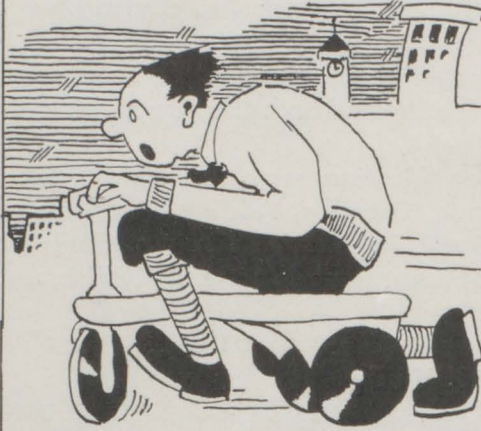

THE annual reception for Senior girls and their mothers was held in Wesley Hall, May 21.

The affair was sponsored by the American Association of University Women. Miss Isabel MacLaren was general chairman.

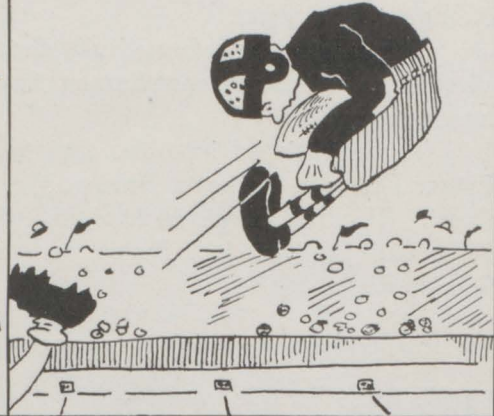

Mrs. Peter Stair was the guest speaker.

HUMOR

Madeline Carpenter: Your neck reminds me of a typewriter.

Lyle Southwick: Why?

Madeline Carpenter: Underwood.

David Kendrick: I read the other day that Dickens spent three years writing a single line of poetry.

Kenneth Locke: That's nothing, I know a man who spent twenty years finishing one sentence.

Philo Scott: What's your idea of harmony?

Clair Maxon: A freckle-faced girl in a polka-dot dress leading a giraffe.

Gregg Lewis: I wonder why they say "a-men" instead of "a-women."

Adeline Diller: Because they sing hymns instead of hers.

Norman Barnes: (Entering a barber shop) Barber, how long will I have to wait to get a shave?

Barber (After glancing at the Soph's face) Oh, about two or three years.

Irene Patten: How did you get all those freckles?

Irene Tennant: Oh, I used to sit behind the screen door every afternoon.

Margaret Wolfel: Where are we going to eat?

Marie McKay: Let's eat up the street.

Margaret Wolfel: Aw, no, I don't like asphalt.

Norman Grass: I see here in the paper where a man working in a slaughter house dropped sixty feet and wasn't hurt a particle.

Irma Herpel: How was that?

Norman Grass: They were pigs' feet.

Cooper Johnson: I once loved a girl who made a fool of me.

Barbara Knill: What a lasting impression some girls do make.

Helen Hill: What is puppy love?

Delbert Washburn: The beginning of a dog's life.

Marion Farr: Why do you suppose Adam was created first?

Bob Baker: Oh, perhaps to give him a chance to say something.

Phyllis Jackson: Is it true that Calvin Coolidge received a dollar a word for an article he wrote?

Virginia Kirkwood: It is.

Phyllis Jackson: Then how much are Wordsworth's words worth?

THE STUDENT

Gordon Ross: I'd offer you a cigarette, but—

Neil Davis: Thanks, but I don't smoke cigarette butts.

Delbert Washburn: There must be some mistake in my examination marking; I don't believe I should get a zero.

Mrs. Packard: Neither do I, but it is the lowest mark I am allowed to give.

Dick Woodward: I would be willing to work if I could get the sort of a job I wanted.

Helen Hill: What would that be?

Dick: I wouldn't mind calling out the stations on an Atlantic liner.

Bob Bassett: Do you know that we are going to fight the Battle of Bunker Hill over again?

Margaret Shingle: Why?

Bob Bassett: It wasn't on the level.

Miss Woodward: It gives me great pleasure to mark 95% on your examination paper.

Clarence Heeke: Why don't you give me 100% and get a real thrill?

Lauretta Brown: Gee! you know I saw a play the other night that sort of started me thinking.

Joe Thornton: Must have been a miracle play.

Jane Rauser: You should put your hand over your mouth when you yawn.

Willard King: What! an' get bit?

Florence May Fair: How near were you to the right answer?

Ken Locke: About four seats.

Edith Goeltz: How did Bill Wolfel make out in his Biology exam.?

Charles Hall: He was caught cheating.

Edith Goeltz: How come?

Charles Hall: In Biology the question was asked, 'How many vertebrae are there?' and he was caught rubbing his back.

Virginia Belyea: Why do you use such a long cigarette-holder?

"Tiny" Henderson: The doctor told me to keep away from tobacco.

Mrs. Packard: Can anyone in the class tell me what Milton, the poet's great affliction was?

Herbert Hanton: Yes'm, I know. He was a poet.

THE STUDENT

Margaret Miller: I hear you lost your temper yesterday.

Hank Ceasor: Yes, but she'll be back tomorrow.

Miss Laura Moore: Marion Laird puts her very heart into her cooking.

Helen Barton: She must have been heavy hearted when she made this cake.

Miss Seibert: Your spelling is atrocious. Why don't you look up the words in the dictionary?

Clifford Jex: I can't spell well enough to find them.

Francis Merritt: I can tell you the score of the game before it starts.

Edith Goeltz: What is it?

Francis Merritt: Nothing to nothing—before it starts.

Eunice Foster: What shall we do tonight?

Bill Welsh: I'll spin a coin. If it's heads we'll go to the movies; tails we go to the dance, and if it stands on edge, we'll study.

Shirley Pugh: Do you really love me or do you just think you do?

Shirley Fearka: Why, of course I love you. I haven't done any thinking yet.

Neil Van Haften: I visited a zoo and saw a man come in on an ostrich.

James Oag: That's nothing! I was at a ball game and saw a man go out on a fly.

Miss Reid: Did you ever hear of any success in history achieved without arms?

Dorothy Gross: How about Venus de Milo?

Bob Miller: I wish I were like a river.

Ruth Charest: How's that?

Bob Miller: It follows its course without leaving its bed.

Miss McCollum: What is a circle?

Isabel Fraser: A circle is a round straight line with a hole in the middle.

Elizabeth Minne: If this ship should sink, whom would you save, Kathleen Higer or me?

Bill Johnson: Me.

Miss Kathleen Moore: I distinctly heard someone prompting you. Who was it?

Tom Woodward: No one, just history repeating itself.
